Dear AFSPA Member,

Greetings and Welcome to August 2018! This means summer is winding down and a new school year is coming quickly. For those with children, this is a good time to visit the pediatrician and the dentist to ensure a successful and healthy school year.

National Immunization Awareness Month

Along the same lines, August is National Immunization Awareness Month. Immunizations aren't just for babies and children at their well-child visits. They are necessary for preteen/teens, adults, as well as pregnant women.

FSBP provides comprehensive benefits for child and adult immunizations – payable at 100% for providers in-network and outside the U.S. Adult immunizations include those endorsed by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). For children, we cover routine childhood and adolescent immunizations. Having your child vaccinated can be important to their long-term health.

encourage you to explore the great resources available on Aetna Navigator. I like the Health Decision Support Tool, powered by Emmi. This interactive web-based program makes complex medical information easy to understand. The short online videos can educate you or your children on various health topics, treatment options, and chronic conditions. The Emmi presentations can be viewed anywhere with Internet access. The below screenshot shows a sampling of the health topics available on the site. Just follow these steps to get started:

1. Log into Aetna Navigator
2. Select "Stay Healthy"
3. Select "Health Decision Support from Emmi."

Each Emmi program takes about 20 minutes to watch. You can view the videos multiple times or pause it to finish later. As you watch the videos, you can write printable notes to bring to your next doctor's appointment. Try it today!
